Deer-shaped Pastries

The deer in Kasuga has been cherished as "Shinroku (divine deer)", the offspring of "Hakushika (white deer)" since 1,300 years ago. In Nara, to encounter a deer means wishes come true so that has been appreciated as "auspicious" since ancient times.

The deer in Kasuga, which are legendarily known as a propitious sign, are now available in the form of pastry. The dough is chewy yet fluffy and the filling inside is moderately sweet.
